When Christ Died on the Cross . . .

In Genesis, chapter 3, we are introduced to the Tempter ("the Dragon, that Serpent of old, who is the Devil, and Satan" – Rev 20:2). He successfully tempts Eve, then Adam, and brings sin into the world with all its negative consequences. Also in this chapter is a prophecy revealing the conflict between God and Satan and God's plan for man's redemption (Gen 3:15). We are reminded of this plan throughout the Old Testament (Psalm 22; Isaiah 53, et al). Some have noted that the New Testament reveals what the Old Testament conceals (Eph 3:9-11; Col 1:25-27).

In the New Testament, it becomes clear that Christ's mission on the cross was to destroy the Devil and his work. "Inasmuch then the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He himself likewise shared in the same, that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil..." (Heb 2:14). "He who sins is of the devil, for the devil sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil" (1 John 3:8).

When Christ died on the cross for our sins and rose again, He fulfilled the prophecy of Genesis 3:15 and dealt a death blow to Satan. For those in Christ, the deadly consequences of sin have been nullified and rendered powerless (Romans 6:23; 8:1; Col 2:13-15). When God sent "His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, on account of sin: He condemned sin in the flesh" (Romans 8:3). "[God] made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him" 2 Cor 5:21). Jesus saves us not only from the penalty of sin, but from its power and dominion as well (Romans 6:13-14; 8:9-11).

This is the Gospel. And this is good news! No wonder Paul encourages us to "Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!" (Phil 4:4).
