This World is Not Our Home

As we approach our necessary move to another facility, packing up boxes and making preparations to leave this building where we've been for years, it brings to mind the transitory nature of our brief sojourn on this planet. As the song says, "This world is not my home, I'm just a' passing thru...."

The New Testament refers to the Old Testament faithful as pilgrims (Hebrews 11:13-16)—those who "sought a heavenly city and did not consider themselves permanently attached to earth" (Zondervan Bible Dictionary). And Peter addresses and identifies New Testament Christians as "strangers," "sojourners" and "pilgrims" (1 Peter 2:11). All these terms reflect the transient nature of those living in a land that is not their own.

We cannot afford to get too comfortable here. We are commanded not to love this world, neither the things that are in the world (1 John 2:15). We are cautioned to keep ourselves unspotted, uncorrupted, and unpolluted by the world (James 1:27). Rather, Christ calls His church to "be blameless and harmless children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom you shine as lights in the world" (Philippians 2:15).

So, "in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation," with all its struggles, hardships, and difficulties (John 16:33; 1 John 5:19), we can rejoice in the fact that we are not of the world and that this troubled planet is not our true home. Rather, "our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform our lowly body that it may be conformed to His glorious body!" (Philippians 3:20-21).

"For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come!" (Heb 13:14). So, we look for "a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God!" (Heb 11:10; John 14:1-3). Amen!

POINTS TO PONDER:

"Every saint has a past...and every sinner has a future."

~ William Bennett ~

(see 1 Corinthians 15:10)

We Need Boxes!

Those having access to good quality, heavy-duty cardboard boxes are asked to bring them to the building in preparation for our move. Thank you! ☺

"In the world you shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." -- Jesus (John 16:33)

☺ Welcome Visitors! ☺

We are glad you have come to worship with us today. We want you to know that you are welcome. Please don't hesitate to ask if you have questions or if we can help you in any way. Please fill out a visitor's card and sign our guest book before you depart. Have a great week!
