How to Win Friends and Influence People

In 1936, Dale Carnegie wrote his now famous book "How to Win Friends and Influence People" which has sold more than 10 million copies and has been translated into many languages.

One authority observes, "His books became popular because of his illustrative stories and simple, well-phrased rules." One of his famous maxims is, "Learn to love, respect and enjoy other people."

It may surprise many folks to learn that Mr. Carnegie was not the first to teach these ideas. More than 1900 years earlier, Jesus Christ walked this earth telling illustrative stories (parables) and delivering simple, well-phrased rules for living.

Jesus taught that we should "go the second mile" for others (Matthew 5:41), love our neighbors as ourselves (Matthew 22:39), love and pray for our enemies (Matthew 5:44), not be critical of others (Matthew 7:1-5), and treat others as we would want to be treated ourselves (Matthew 7:12).

When we learn and faithfully follow these teachings found in the word of God, we will "win friends and influence people" — for Christ! — Terry Schmidt ✍

"I tell you the truth, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." — Jesus (Matt 18:3)

Men's Budget Planning Meeting

TODAY AFTER SERVICES

We hope you have planned to attend this very important working session. Your participation is needed and will be greatly appreciated. Thank you.
(Romans 12:11; Colossians 3:23-24)

POINTS TO PONDER

When quarrels and disagreements occur, we can often diffuse them by giving up our right to be right. Humility calls us to show grace and gentleness when we would rather insist on our own way.

"In humility, consider others better than yourselves." — Philippians 2:3
