Tillit Sidney Teddlie 1885-1987

Brother Tillit Sidney Teddlie, whose songs we often sing during worship, was a singing school teacher, composer, publisher, and minister of the church of Christ. He was born June 3, 1885, at Swan, Texas, the eighth of nine children. He was baptized by A. M. Shelton in August 1903. He attended his first singing school at age 9. The school was taught by his brother, Jim. He taught his first shape-note singing school at White's Prairie, Texas, in 1903. Six-hour sessions were conducted daily for two weeks.

While in Frederick, Oklahoma, he picked cotton during the day and taught singing school at night. In 1906 brother Teddlie composed his first hymn entitled, "I Have Waited Too Long to Prepare." He was educated in Southern Development Normal in Waco, Texas, a school for advanced instruction in theory and harmony. He also attended what is now North Texas State University.

In addition to singing schools which he taught for 61 years, he also preached. He conducted a tent meeting in 1923 in Thalia, Texas. Merchants closed their stores for the day services. Over 400 came and 28 people were baptized as a result of his preaching. He led singing for more than 100 gospel preachers in meetings across the land. For one period of time (two years) he sang only with Foy E. Wallace, Jr., while they conducted meetings across the country.

Brother Teddlie's 100th birthday was honored by President Ronald Two Faces of Christianity and Nancy Reagan who sent a personal telegram. Texas Senator Phil Graham had a flag from the White House sent to brother Teddlie. He celebrated his 102nd birthday June 3, 1987, in Gunter, Texas and, on August 17, 1987, Tillit Sidney Teddlie departed this life to be with the Lord. Upon his grave stone is inscribed the title of one of his most popular hymns: "Heaven Holds All to Me." He lived a long and useful life and will continue to live through his many gospel songs.

During his lifetime, brother Teddlie taught singing schools for 61 years, composed 130 songs, published 14 song books, and served as a full-time evangelist for the Lord's church. Some of his most memorable songs are: When We Meet In Sweet Communion, "The Lord's Supper," (1922); Singing Redemption's Song, (1923); Worthy Art Thou, (1930); Heaven Holds All To Me, (1932); Oft We Come Together, "True Worship", (1944).
