Do Not Read This!

If you are reading this, you are confirming the fact that man has the propensity to do what is forbidden. This has been our problem since the beginning of time. And Satan knows it!

When Satan tempted Eve and said, "You will not surely die," he was questioning and casting doubt on the truth and validity of God's word (Genesis 3:4). More than that, he was questioning God's motivation in issuing this command and was insinuating that God's motives were suspect and not honorable (Genesis 3:5). In short, he told Eve "God is holding out on you! He is withholding something good from you for His own selfish reasons. He really doesn't care about you."

As this text reveals, his strategy worked well with Eve. She bought into what he was selling and, as a result, brought sin into the world. Satan has changed his method of operation very little over the centuries. Why? Because it works!

How can you and I keep from being beguiled and drawn into Satan's skillful web of deceit? By knowing, believing and trusting in the basic nature of God. We need to realize that God's commands are not arbitrarily issued in order to restrict our joy or to make our lives miserable. Rather, they are given with our best interest and well being at heart. God is good! And He always seeks our good! (Ps 34:8; 100:5; 103:1-5; 119:68; 145:7-9).

Embracing this fact will enable us to successfully resist the tactics of Satan when he attempts to deceive us into doing that which is forbidden, or question God's motives and His love for us. — Terry Schmidt ✍

Our Deepest Sympathy

Our sincerest condolences are extended to Paul & Diane and family as they mourn the death of Diane's father, Paul Bineau, who passed away last Thursday, March 14th. May God's steadfast presence and tender compassion provide strength and comfort to these dear ones during this difficult time of grief and loss. ☩
